A SQUARE BACKDOWN.

After all the blatant devices on the part of the Republicans to the financial showing made by the Silver party, and their seeming eagerness to meet the Silver men in debate on the one issue of the county campaign, the backdown of yesterday was pitiable.

The open letter to Mr. Kersey was mailed to every voter in the county yesterday morning and the Silver Central Committee was ready to "make a match."

The only thing in the way was the absence of one of the principles, Mr. Kersey was not there. In order to take no snap judgment in the issue, the time was extended until six in the evening, but still Mr. Kersey did not appear and the Silver Central Committee who had arranged for the Opera House was obliged to print handbills informing the public that owing to the refusal of the Republicans to meet the Silver men in public debate, the meeting could not be held.

It is a square backdown and a square acknowledgement that the figures in the APPEAL were correct.

A party never before in this county stood before the taxpayers in such a pitiable condition, as the Republicans of Ormsby. The Silver administration clearly demonstrated that the county could be run $10,000 a year cheaper than under the old Republican ring and they are gnashing their teeth with rage that the showing has not only been made but proven.

Later in the evening the Republicans pasted a poster on the dead walls containing a mass of figures calculated to mislead and blind the voters, but the main issue, the question of the actual disbursements was dodged. If these figures would bear investigation why did not the Republicans meet the editor of the APPEAL at the Opera House last evening and debate them.

The figures were only intended to paste on a dead wall. They would not bear discussion before an audience, and the Republicans did not dare to trust them where they could be exposed.

No wonder they avoided public debate on the question.

EDITORIAL MENTION.

The Republican back-down last evening from the public debate on county affairs was the talk of the town. Men who were blinded by the brag and bluster of the old boodle ring, saw the whole matter quite clearly when the word went along the line that the Republicans had flunked.

Mrs. Walsh's ranch is assessed at $3500 yet when there was talk of purchasing it for the county $2000 was the price offered, we believe, by Mr. Kersey himself. We call this a high assessment.

The Gardner property with 600 acres is assessed at $500. It leases 80 acres for $150 a year. It is worth between six and seven thousand dollars. We would call this a low assessment.

The V. & T. R. R. Co. regards the election of John D. Kersey as one of more importance to the country at large than the passage of a free coinage bill or the repeal of the McKinley law.

Some close observers who have been through the greater part of the State are predicting a majority of at least 3000 for the Silver ticket.

Storey county will give 500 majority for Newlands, Jones and the whole Silver ticket, according to the latest reports.
